CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 04/10/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by the order dated 23-4-2004 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City, and she has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, she cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. Heard learned advocate for the petitioner and the learned AGP for the State. Also perused the record. Learned advocate for the petitioner has submitted that only a single offence has been registered against the detenu at Prohibition(East Zone) Police Station, being Prohi.C.R.No.525/2004 dated 22-4-2004. Drawing my attention towards page 18 (Annexure-B) of the compilation, it is contented that when the order of detention was passed, the detenu was in police remand which aspect ought to have been considered by the authority while passing the detention order. In this connection, learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn my attention towards the case of Amritlal and Others Vs. Union Govt. Through Secy., Ministry of Finance and Others, 2001 SCC (Cri) 147 wherein it was held at Head note as under:

> "Preventive Detention--Detention order-Subjective satisfaction--Detenu already in jail-Detaining authority must be satisfied on the basis of available cogent material about likelihood of the detenu being released on bail and not merely about likelihood of his moving application for bail--In absence of such satisfaction detention order cannot be sustained--Prevention of Illicit Traffic in Narcotic drugs and Psychotropic Substances act, 1988, S.3(1)"

4. It seems that there is non-application of mind on the part of detaining authority as detenu was in police custody when the impugned order of detention was passed and hence, in view of the judgment rendered in Amritlal (supra), the continued detention of the detenu is illegal and the same cannot be sustained. It is to be noted that a co-detenu was also released by this Court vide order dated 4-10-2004 passed in Special Civil Application No.5827 of 2004 and hence, she is entitled to be released on parity.

5. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 23-4-2004 passed against the detenu Kalpanaben, Wife of Ajitbhai Bevadiya Malakiya (Chhara) is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly. Direct service is permitted.
